WETASKIWIN MASON'S HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE
The members of Wetaskiwin Lodge No. 15, A. F. & A. M. held a most solemn and impressive service in the lodge room Sunday afternoon last, in memory of their most illustrious sovereign Brother King Edward VII. The lodge room was tastefully draped in black and purple, and in the centre of the room was a catafalque consisting of a rectangular platform, on which were two smaller platforms representing three steps. On the third was an elevation on which was placed an urn. A canopy of black drapery was raised over the urn and platform. On the catafalque were laid a pair of white gloves and a lambkin apron. At each corner of the platform was placed a candelstick bearing a lighted taper, which was extinguished at the proper time in the service.
Perhaps the most impressive part in the whole service was that in which the wardens, deacons and stewards approached the east and with the worshipful master formed a procession, which moved once around the catafalque, at the conclusion of which the junior warden placed upon it a bunch of white flowers. A similar duty was performed by the senior warden, who deposited a wreath of white flowers, after the procession had moved twice around the catafalque. The procession then passed three times around the altar and catafalque, after which the worshipful master deposited a wreath of evergreens upon the urn, to commemorate the memory of their departed sovereign. The members of the lodge then remained in the hearts of his Masonic brethren. Each of these officers when placing his tribute delivered an appropriate address.

A KING'S REQUEST

London, May 12.—The following ode entitled "The Truce of God," with the sub-title, "A King's Request," written by the poet laureate, Alfred Austin, on the death of King Edward, appeared in the Standard:

What darkness, deep as wintry gloom,
O'ershadowed joyous spring—
In vain, the verna, orchards bloom,
Vainly the woodlands sing.
Round royal shrines, a mournful crowd—
Is all now left of one but yesterday
A King.
Thrones have there been a hateful fame—
Reared upon wanton war.
He who have lost still linked his name with peace.
At home, afar,
For peace he wrought.
His constant thought—Being how to shield his realm against strife's baleful star.
So let us, now, all seek to wrest,
From hateful feuds release,
And, mindful of his wise bequest,
Proud factions clamors cease;
Treading the path he trod,
The sacred truce of God,
The path that points and leads to patriotic peace.

PATRONIZE HOME FIRMS

In these days of keen competition, everyone is, or seems to be, out after what financial gain there is in, every purchase they are compelled to make. Whether it is in buying real estate or buying a few provisions or a small amount of dry goods, the same idea permeates the purchaser's mind, how cheap can I get it. This to a certain extent is alright and we don't mind confessing that we work somewhat along those lines ourselves. We hear nowadays about the mail order houses and the great volume of business that is done by them with the people in the West. The only thing that induces the people of the West to patronize the mail order houses is because by so doing they believe they can get articles at a lower price, than they could of the local merchants at home. That may or may not be the case. The thing to consider is, are they getting things cheaper by sending their money out of town. We don't think so. The keen spirit which is displayed by a lot of people in the West to get things at the lowest price, coupled with the fact that some mail order houses have certain lines marked lower than the local merchants, seems to blind their eyes to the true state of things, and instead of buying cheaply they are actually paying more for them than if they bought them at home.

Every dollar sent away means that much hindrance to the progress of the town they live in, and the up-building of a mail order house, most likely hundreds of miles away. While on the other hand, money spent in, and kept within a town means a live and prosperous town, with plenty of improvements and a life worth living. The local merchants have to pay taxes, and if anything is started that needs money they live in, and the up-building of a mail order house, most likely hundreds of miles away. BITTERN LAKE

The dance given last Friday by the Bittern Lake B. B. club was a complete success.

Mr. C. G. Detling moved a couple of buildings last week from Mr. J. P. Pelter of Hosenroll, who had them placed on Birkett St. West.

Messrs. Allcock, Phelps and Kirkland, of Camrose, took in the dance Friday evening and report a good time.

Mr. Pelter has the cellar dug and foundation started for his hotel on the corner of Railway and Main streets.

Mr. Mack W. Hushan made a business trip to Wetaskiwin, Saturday.

Miss Coverdale, of Lacombe is spending a few days here visiting friends.

T. R. Jerne, who has the contract for opening out the roads west of here is at work with a large bunch of men and teams.

A town well is to be dug as soon as the council can get anyone to take the contract.

Mr. Don. Roper is having a sail boat built and several row boats are already on the lake, so boating is quite a feature already.

W. M. Brooks made a business trip to Wetaskiwin, Monday.

There will be something doing in telephone construction soon, as a large number of cross arms have been shipped in.

Temperance Column

Edited by
THE W. C. T. U.

The liquor traffic is unfair to labor. It uses up raw material, employing a less number of men in the process than any other business. It employs a far smaller number of men for the money invested than any other activity. It makes life for the laborer in these days of machinery, exceedingly dangerous. It unites the man who without it, is a very capable workman. It spends for the laborer all his money, and makes it impossible for him to buy a home and use liquor. Everything that makes against the laborer is a danger to the employer of labor.

The liquor traffic is unfair to those seeking the betterment of the community. Schools are not so well attended from the homes of drinking men. Children of drinking parents are not as clear headed to do intellectual labor. Churches and the saloon the greatest obstacle in their work of evangelizing the land. All reforms expend most of their strength against the saloon, and every kind of crime makes a breakthrough of the liquor traffic behind which to hide. As a result the education, civilization and regeneration of the individual and of the community are made impossible by the liquor traffic.—The St. Louis flag.

The liquor traffic is unfair to the city. It makes the saloon a city institute; all its impurity and crime a city of impurity and crime. What ever disgrace the traffic produces becomes the disgrace of the city licensing it. The citizens are made partners in the criminality of the saloon.

The liquor traffic is unfair to the home. The principal business of a city or village is the making of homes. Nothing should be allowed in the city but such as conduces to the benefit in all of life in any nation that damages the home as does the liquor saloon.

The liquor traffic is unfair to the drinker. It takes his money, it takes his strength, it takes his reputation, it takes his character, it takes his clearness of brain, it takes his will of hand, it takes his satisfaction in life. It takes away his manhood and his God. It gives nothing in return.

The liquor traffic is unfair to the business man. It gets the first grab at the workmen's wages, by trapping him Saturday and Sunday just after he has been paid his weekly wage. It shows its greed by keeping open long after other stores are closed. It prays upon its patrons weakness and passions and unites them for legitimate business. It strips men of their money and precludes the possibility of their paying other legitimate bills.

WELL KNOWN ACTRESS

Joan Sawyer, a clever, handsome actress, has this to say of Parisian Sage: "To whom, it may concern: Have tried most every hair tonic available, and at last Parisian Sage was recommended to me, and, as at last recourse, used it to my entire satisfaction. My hair has stopped falling, dandruff stopped, and my hair has grown six inches in the last seven months. It is the best, and only sure cure for thin hair I know."—Joan Sawyer, 59 East 96th St., New York City.

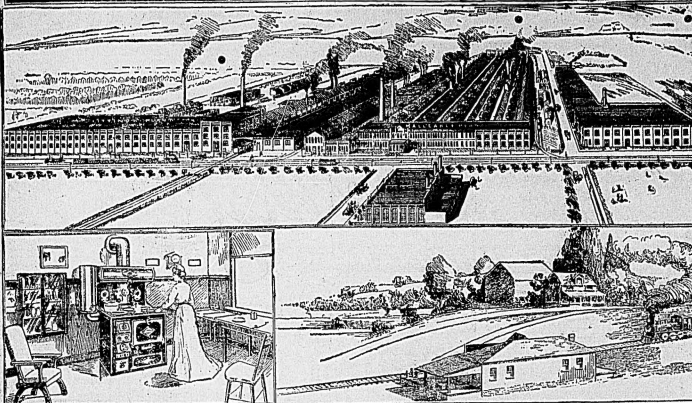

Parisian Sage is the scientific hair restorer that has created such a sensation since its introduction into America about two years ago. It is such a quick acting prescription that every agent who sells it will guarantee it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair, splitting hair, and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

It is the most delightful hair dressing in the world and is highly praised by society women and actresses who have luxuriant and glorious hair. It will turn harsh, lustreless hair into soft, silky and luxuriant hair in a few days. Do not confound Parisian Sage with other preparations of similar name. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

The Red Cross Drug Store is the agent for Parisian Sage in Wetaskiwin and he sells it for 50 cents a large bottle. Mail orders filled at same price, charges prepaid, by the Canadian makers, Giroux Mfg. Co., Port Erie, Ont.

The splendid work of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before. Thousands bless them for curing constipation, sick headache, biliousness, jaundice and indigestion. Sold by Red Cross Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McManus spent the week-end with Edmonton friends. Mr. McManus returned on Monday, but Mrs. McManus will spend some time with friends at the Capital.

COMMUNICATION

We do not necessarily endorse the sentiments advanced by this or any other correspondent appearing under this heading.

To the honorable, learned and generous council of the city of Wetaskiwin, I take this opportunity of thanking you for your unexcelled generosity in being so kind as to let me, an undesirable and unworthy citizen, such as I am off from paying the costs of the fire brigade which turned out at my call to save a fellow man's property. I also take this opportunity of letting my friends (not the council) know where the fire was, which the council reprimanded me for calling out the brigade. It was north of the city limits 4 rods, and in spite of all our efforts it got inside of the city limits and the property was certainly saved from destruction, to which every man there will testify consisted of one dwelling costing $900, well furnished with new piano and other good and expensive furniture; one stable with at least $1000 worth of horses in it, besides new and expensive harness, wagon and buggies worth $400 making over $3000 worth of property. The land on which these buildings are located is surveyed and sold as city lots. I showed the reprimand from the Royal High Maccabees the city council to Mr. D. A. Sharp. He said he also phoned for immediate help to the mayor, but got no reprimand. I say he was lucky being born under the right flag, while I, poor unfortunate, was unlucky, being born in Missouri, where "they have to show me".

Believing that a man should be loyal to the country in which he lives I took out my naturalization papers and that too, without even filing on land, which but few others have done, until forced, to enable them to get their patents. So I will have to be thankful for the leniency of the city council letting me off from the great offense, although I pay a good tax towards keeping the brigade up.

Respectfully your humble obedient servant, W. A. Howard.

CREAMERY NOTES

Mr. E. W. Day, of Daysland has offered a site for the proposed Ladies' College, to be established in connection with the Presbyterian church, to Rev. Dr. D. G. McQueen, who is at the head of the special committee who have the matter in hand. The property, which has an area of eight acres and is situated next to the "comet gas" as we are assured of townsite which takes its name from that support which we deserve. Mr. Day, has a city park on one side and streets of the town on the other. The association has decided to adopt butter fat as a basis of payment. This is the second offer of a ment this year. Our statements will site, the other being made by Mr. Jamieson, of Red Deer.

Olga Paulson was seriously injured on Saturday, May 1st, by the accidental discharge of a 22 rifle. He was taken to Edmonton on the following Tuesday, where by the assistance of an X-ray, the bullet was located, but up to the present time we have not heard the particulars of his condition.—Bawlf Sun.

Ottawa, May 16.—Dominion government has appointed Hon. Sydney Fisher, Hon. Aylesworth and Lord Strathcona to represent Canada, at the funeral of King Edward VII., on Friday.

Lord Strathcona has cabled his thanks for being included in the Canadian representatives.

As a result of the investigation of Sergt. Phillips, of the R.N.W.M.P., there was nothing in the report circulated Monday that the badly decomposed remains of an unknown man had been found in a well on a farm about eight miles southwest of here, even to which all are cordially invited.

As we predicted the creamery supply increased 100 per cent. last week. I already have more patrons than at any time last year. There are some who predicted our supply, which has an area of eight acres and is situated next to the "comet gas" as we are assured of townsite which takes its name from that support which we deserve. Mr. Day, has a city park on one side and streets of the town on the other. The association has decided to adopt butter fat as a basis of payment. This is the second offer of a ment this year. Our statements will site, the other being made by Mr. Jamieson, of Red Deer.

There is perhaps a misunderstanding of the relative value of "butter fat" as compared with butter. We will assume that patron John Smith supplied 230 lbs. of cream, testing 33 per cent or 75.9 lbs. of fat for which he receives 26 cents per pound or $19.75. Now 75.9 pounds of butter fat should yield 58 pounds of butter, which allows for a 16 per cent. over run. On this basis this patron receives 22.43 cents per pound for the actual butter. Watch for our announcement in next week's issue.

Yours truly,
S. C. Archibald.

Indigestion
Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not the disease. We think of indigestion as a disease, and indigestion is not a disease, yet it is a symptom of a certain specific disease—Stomach trouble.
It is the fact that first comes the Stomach in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy, Dr. Shoop's Restorative. This direct to the stomach action, always brought that success and relief to the thousands who have been led from that original and highly vital principle, no more and no other medicine is to be had.
For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and other complaints, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and for your self and all who are with you. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

SONG OF CANADIAN PIONEERS

We have felt the life of a wild desire.
We have followed our whim to roam
We broke from the yoke of our plodding flock,
And severed the ties of home.
As our fathers before, in days of yore,
Came wand'ring over the main,
To conquer the soil with their blood
And toil,
And, people a wide domain.
We have pushed our way where the beavers play,
In the hush of the virgin wood:
We have lifted the sod where man
we're trod
Since the lord pronounced it good.
And our path has led where the buffalo fed
On the prairies vast and wide,
Where the glittering grain now brightens the plain,
And the farthest close beside.
We have wrung the gold from its icy fold
On the verge of the Arctic line;
And the mountains yield to the tools
we wield
The glittering wealth of the mine,
We have cast our nets where the Fraser frets
Against the rush of the tide—
For our lives are free as the boundless sea
And wide as our land is wide.
We have garnered a store on every shore:
We have tasted the fruit-ripe sweet
But thro' danger's breath, in the face of death,
The price we have paid was meet.
How many have died by the wild trail-side
How many a comrade's laid
In his lonely grave where the pine-trees wail
Or plains in horizon fade.
We have opened a way for you who stay
In the plagues of their strife,
To the free clear air, where there's land to spare
And a man can live his life.
Tho' hard be the toil till we win the soil,
The harvest is rich indeed,
For ye build a home that is all your own.
For ye fill an Empire's need.

HOW DO YOU JUDGE A DAIRY COW
A dairy cow is often judged by the scale of points of the breed to which she belongs. Another method is to rate her according to her general appearance and the external features of milking powers; appearance is sometimes deceitful. Recently a farmer near Ormstown Que., sold five cows at $25 each, saying they were no good as dairy cows. The purchaser found to his great satisfaction that one gave him 18,000 lbs. milk and another 13,000 lbs. Sometimes a cow is valued because she is easy to keep, or she is a docile, family pet. Coming nearer to the practical test, a farmer may judge his best cow to be the one that daily gives a couple of pails of milk in June; though she may quickly decrease in flow, the rememberance of that big yield sticks in the owner's mind and she is understandably ranked too high. Or she may have earned a wide local reputation just by one isolated test for fat very likely higher than normal. On the other hand a cow that gives only a moderate yield but attends strictly to business for a reasonably long milking period will probably prove the more valuable. Again there may be some general idea of production, but totals that are only estimated, are generally in excess of the actual yield.

The positive proof of value is certainly of the cow's ability to produce milk and fat economically; the generous minded, unselfish, real dairy cow, independent of strikes and lockouts, works full time, and returns a handsome margin of profit above the computed cost of feed. The one infallible test is a record of the production of each cow for the full period of lactation. Don't average up the herd, ascertain that each cow is a specialist.

Caught Cold By Working In Water.

A Distressing, Tickling Sensation In The Throat.

Mr. Albert MacPhee, Chignecto Mines, N.S., writes: "In Oct. 1908, I caught cold by working in water, and had a very bad cough and tickling sensation in my throat so I could not sleep at night, and my lungs were so very sore I had to give up work. Our doctor gave me medicine but it did me no good so I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and by the time I had used two bottles I was entirely cured. I am always recommending it to my friends."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup combines the potent healing virtues of the Norway pine tree with other absorbent, expectorant, and soothing medicines of recognized worth, and is absolutely harmless, prompt and safe for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Sore Throat, Pain or Tightness in the Chest, and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Beware of imitations of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Ask for it and insist on getting what you ask for. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and the price 25 cents.

ANOTHER MIRACLE IN NOVA SCOTIA

Thought the Disease was Cancer of the Stomach

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Cured Him

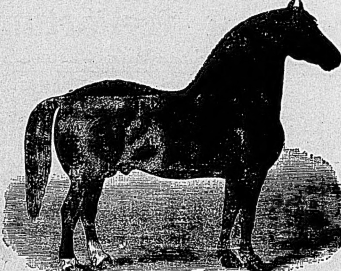

SYDNEY MINES, N. S., JANUARY 29TH 1910

"For many years I suffered torture from indigestion and dyspepsia. Two years ago I was so bad that I vomited my food constantly. The agony I endured all these years, I cannot describe and I lost over 25 pounds in weight. I also suffered with Constipation which made the stomach trouble worse. I consulted physicians, as I was afraid the disease was cancer but medicine gave only temporary relief and then the disease was as bad as ever.

I read in the "Maritime Herald" about "Fruit-a-tives" and the cure this medicine was making and I decided to try it. After taking three boxes, I found a great change for the better and now I can say "Fruit-a-tives" has entirely cured me when every other treatment failed, and I reverently say "Thank God for Fruit-a-tives!"

EDWIN GRAM, St.

"Fruit-a-tives" sweetens the stomach, increases the flow of gastric juice, strengthens the stomach muscles, and assures sound digestion. The wonderful powers of this famous fruit medicine are never more clearly shown than in curing the apparently hopeless cases of Dyspepsia and Constipation. See a box, 6 for 25-cs, or trial size, 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

News Notes

J. J. Christopher, the local manager for Compton & Christopher, is planning for a trip to the far east this summer, expecting to leave here about June 1st.—Daysland Press.

Since the discovery was made in Canada, a year or so ago, that the muskrat could be treated and dyed to imitate seal so nearly as to avoid detection, the price of its pelts has doubled.

The Department of the Interior will shortly issue a map similar to the homestead map recently sent out, showing the grain production throughout all the townships of the West. The map will give the fullest possible details as to the amount of wheat, oats and flax grown and will be of great service to the intruding settlers as showing the most productive areas of the country.

"Lifebuoy Soap is delightfully refreshing for Bath or Toilet. For washing underclothing it is unequalled in its uses and purifies."

The trade territory of a town is not all dependent on the distances to neighboring trading points. The trade territory depends upon the enterprise of the merchants and the residents of the town. If a town does not reach after the trade it will not come only as fast as it has to, and it will grow as it is forced to. But if the merchants go after business in the surrounding country, advertising in every possible way, and making good every word of their advertising, trade will come from an ever increasing radius, the town will gain a reputation of being awake and it will force to the front.

"This is a practical demonstration of the saying that every man ought to have his name printed on his envelope," said the postmaster pointing to three or four letters held for postage. Any man is likely to put a letter in the post office without mailing it. With a card on the corner of the envelope, we can stamp it and collect the postage when the writer comes in. We don't know who dropped those letters into the box, and must hold them until we place them in the person addressed and they send on the postage. That is the rule of the post office department.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will clear the sour stomach, sweeten the breath and create a healthy appetite. They promote the flow of gastric juice, thereby inducing good indigestion. Sold by The Red Cross Drug Store.

A patent automatic machine for the stamping of letters, which will dispense with the necessity of adhesive postage, has been a successful operation in New Zealand for two years, and is to be placed on demonstration shortly before the Canadian postal authorities. It is claimed that a great saving may be effected through its use.

After a search lasting for nearly three days, carried on by search parties organized by the mounted police, Pierre Audenaute, insane from the effects of over study, preparatory to entering the priesthood, was captured in the bush, 12 miles north of Belvedere, last Wednesday. He is now at Fort Saskatchewan awaiting the order of the Attorney General to be committed to the asylum at Brandon.

London, May 9.—It is stated that the new queen has decided to be known as Queen Victoria, her first name of Mary is not a name of happy associations in English history.

AN IRISHMAN'S WILL

In the name of God I Timothy Doolan, of Berrydown, in the county of Clare, farmer, being sick and weak in my legs, but of sound head and warm heart—glory to God—make the first and last will and testament. First, I give my soul to God, when it pleases him to take it. Shure no thanks to me for I can't help it then; and my body I bequeath to the ground at Barrydown chapel, where all my kith and kin that have gone before me, and those who live after belonging to me, are buried. Peace to their ashes and may the rest rest lightly over their bones. Bury me near my God father, Felix O'Kaherty, betwixt and between my father and mother, who lie separately altogether at the other side of the chapel yard. I have this bit of ground containing ten acres—old Irish acres—to my eldest son, Tim, after the death of his mother he lives to survive him. My daughter Mary, and her husband, Pat O'Regan, are to get the white soil. To my second son, might have got the pick of all the country, but he's gone; I bequeath to him all mankind the fresh air of the heaven, all the birds of the air they can shoot, I have them the sun, the moon and the stars. I have to Patrick Rafferty a pint of poteen I can't finish and may God be merciful to his soul.

MAN ELECTROCUTED AT THE ALBERTA HOTEL

A most unfortunate accident happened at the Alberta Hotel about 10:30 Wednesday morning, when a young man named Julius Stubel lost his life by being electrocuted. It happened in a most unexpected manner, and as soon as the community heard of the accident, a gloom was cast over the city. One of the electric light wires became loose from the cross-arm which projected from the corner of the building, allowing the wire to rub against the corner of the building. In this manner the insulation was worn off the wire and the metal side of the hotel became charged with the electric current. This started a fire in three different parts of the building, but as these were discovered and extinguished at once no damage was done. As the unfortunate man was stooping over to more closely view one of the outbreaks of the fire, he placed his hand against the side of the building and he was instantaneously knocked insensible. In the fall his both feet came in contact with the side of the building, and in this position he remained for some moments with the electric current passing through his body. In the fall he came in contact with E. E. Campbell, who received such a shock that he was paralyzed for several minutes.

As George Wells, endeavoring to remove the victim, he also received a shock, but as soon as he realized the cause of the trouble, he succeeded in removing the man from his perilous position by grasping him with one hand. The unfortunate man was carried into the hotel and medical aid was at once summoned, but despite the best efforts of those in attendance it was impossible to revive the spark of life.

Pete Wells also received a shock as he was endeavoring to extinguish the fire.

The deceased was an industrious young man about 22 years of age and had recently immigrated from Germany. He accepted a situation at the Alberta Hotel the first of the month. The only relatives in this country are a brother and sister who live in the Red Deer Lake district. The remains are being conveyed to Red Deer Lake this Thursday for interment.

WETASKIWIN AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY EXHIBITION

As might be seen in the list of fairs published elsewhere in this issue, the date of the exhibition in Wetaskiwin is on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 27th and 28th.

For some time a committee has been at work revising the prize list, which will this year be brought right up to date by embodying several classifications which have not heretofore appeared. The directors have also secured several handsome special prizes, which will give the exhibition an added interest to the competitor and spectator alike.

It behooves every farmer in the district to get aside some special article or articles of stock, and cultivate and nurture it with a view to bringing it to the Wetaskiwin fair. Begin now and you will be astonished to see the success that will reward such enterprise.

Let everybody take a full share of the responsibility and pleasure of boosting our fair and at the same time our city. Remember the fair is just what we make it, and if we start now we can make it the best in Central Alberta. Will you help to make it the best.
